GLEE CLUB ENTERTAINS AT GRANGE

A program was presented by the Mattapoisett Center School Glee Club at a meeting of the Mattapoisett Grange held last Thursday night at the Grange Hall. Mrs. Lee S. Root is director and Mrs. Cyrus Stonehill, accompanist.

Selections were: "Three Wagon Wheels", Seventy-Six Trombones", "This Old Man", Happy Wanderer", "Drummer Boy", and "The Lord's Prayer". Also on the program were piano solos by Susan Underwood and Milton Farbstein, and a violin duet by Jane Wordell and Susan Roylance.

Mrs. Lemuel LeBaron conducted the business meeting. Mrs. Clifton Hatton reported for the Home and Community Service committee. Three sunshine baskets will be sent to shutins and Easter place cards made for rest homes. A family supper will by held some time after Easter, the date to be announced. Contributions by the committee have been made to the Heart Fund and Easter Seals. An all-day sewing meeting will be held April 5th starting at 10:30 A.M. Mrs. Mary Costa will be hostess.

The first and second degree will be performed at the April 6th meeting. Deputy Leland Perry of the State Grange will be the

FRIENDSHIP GROUP MEETS

Friendship Group of North Rochester Congregational Church met at the home of Mrs. Helen Reed, North Avenue. Plans were made to conduct a food sale the latter part of April at the Free Public Library.

A thank you letter was read thanking the group for its donations of sheeting and blankets for use at Angell Animal Hospital, Boston. Assisting the group in its collections were the Boy Scouts of Troop 30, Girl Scouts of Troop 165 and friends in Rochester and New Bedford.

The group voted as its next project to make pads and bandages to be used at nursing homes for cancer patients. An appeal for small, used plastic bags has been issued by the Friendship Group. The plastic bags are used in cancer hospitals to put in dressings removed from the patients and then they are burned.

Special guest was the Rev. Herbert L. Wilbur of North Rochester Congregational Church. Refreshments of fruit cake, chiffon cake, ice cream, coffee and tea were served by the hostess, Mrs. Reed. The refreshments served buffet style were highlighted with a damask rose colored tablecloth.

PATIENT AT HOSPITAL

Mrs. Herman Morse of Acushnet is a patient at Tobey Hospital, Wareham. Mrs. Morse is the mother of Mrs. Althea Lawrence of Neck Road, Rochester, Herman R. Morse Jr. of Snipatuit Road and Raymond Morse of Braley Hill Road.

of Troop 165 at their weekly meeting held in the vestry of the First Congregational Church of Rochester. Boy Scouts demonstrating the knots were Raymond Daggett, patrol leader; Robert Balzarini, Thomas Kenney, Wayne Hardy, Gary MacNeill, Kenneth Mosakowski and Alton Ellis. Girl Scouts were shown the square knot, bowline, clove hitch, sheep shank, sheet bend and two and one-half hitch.

SCOUTING REQUIREMENTS PASSED

Scouting requirements were passed by the following Boy Scouts at the weekly meeting held at the Rochester Woman's Club: Wesley Rollins and Harold Lescord, morse code; Aime Poirier, measuring and first aid and William Hartley, hiking methods. Adult leaders present at the meeting were Scoutmaster Calvin R. Daggett, Robert F. Doane, chairman Troop 30 committee; Robert Gonet, associate advisor in Explorer Post 30; Alfred Maccarone and Ernest Davoll.

CAT GETS CAUGHT

"Tommy", an ordinary yellow tom cat, got its head caught in the fork of a tree that was 60 feet high. Neighbors of Mrs. Elanie Landis of Mary's Pond Road, Rochester attempted to reach the cat but to no avail. Finally with the use of a ladder and then climbing the rest of the way Donald George proved to be the "hero". The cat is the pet of Barbara Landis, 4, daughter of Mrs. Landis. Fire Department personnel were called by Mr. George had rescued the cat before they arrived.

DEDICATED AT CHURCH CEREMONY

Robert Alan Cocking, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Cocking of Hartley Road, Rochester, was dedicated at ceremonies held at Long Plain Baptist Church, Acushnet. Sponsors for Robert Alan were his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Snell of Rochester. The Rev. Stanley Decker officiated at the dedication ceremonies. A small party was held later in the day at the Cocking residence. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Sopa of North Dartmouth, Airman First Class and Mrs. Robert Deiter and family of North Falmouth, Mr. and Mrs. Snell and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd W. Taylor and family. The Gordon Cockings have a daughter, Donna, 22 months old.

FOOD SALE HELD

The Pilgrim Fellowship of the First Congregational Church of Rochester conducted a successful food sale Saturday at the Free Public Library. In charge were Fellowship members Audrey LaFleur, Geraldine Lawrence, Norma Mello and Mrs. Daniel L. Hartley, fellowship advisor.

Members of the Pilgrim Fellowship express their appreciation to the townspeople who, by donating paper during the Fellowship paper drive, were responsible for its financial success. Part of the proceeds were used to pay for the bus transportation when the members went to Boston to see the Ice Follies.

POST SCRIPTS

Mattapoisett Selectmen, swiftly acting upon the wishes of the townspeople as expressed at the Town meeting by a recommendation, entered into negotiations for insurance on the wharves. This very commendable action will surely be appreciated as the storm and hurricane season rolls around. The wharf area is very valuable to the town and an expensive asset. It will add to everyone's peace of mind to know that insurance will cover them this season.

Through an oversight we missed listing the contested race for Constables in Mattapoisett. There were 2 incumbents returned to office, Gilbert P. Alves and Alfred E. Faria. Results were Gilbert P. Alves 904, Alfred E. Faria 946 and Robert A. Silveira 311.

LENTEN PROGRAM

St. Rose of Lima Catholic Club of Rochester is sponsoring a special Lenten program of movies at 7:30 P.M. March 26th at the Rochester Grange Hall. Films to be shown are "I Beheld His Glory" and "Beacon of Faith". Tickets may be obtained from club members or from ushers at the church Sunday. All are cordially invited to attend.

BAPTISM SERVICE

The sacraments of Baptism will be administered during the regular 10:30 A.M. Sunday worship March 26th, Palm Sunday, at the First Congregational Church of Rochester. Parents desiring to have their children baptized should contact Mrs. George A. Hill, Jr., pastor, or one of the deacons as soon as possible.

MATTAPOISETT WOMAN'S CLUB PRESENTS COMEDY

"The King of Hearts", a 3-act comedy by Jean Kerr and Eleanor Brooke, was warmly received by an appreciative audience at the Mattapoisett Town Hall on Friday and Saturday nights of last week. The play, directed by Van G. Sauter, was a light and amusing satire of a comic strip artist who takes his work and himself far too seriously. Brydson Sharples as Larry Larkin, extroverted egomaniac, turned in a polished performance. Jaqueline Lenz attractively portrayed his secretary and provided the romantic interest in a triangle that included Hartley Gurney, a ghost artist. William Darrah, as the adopted son, did a wonderful job. The "dark horse" of the affair, in a manner of speaking, was "Mona", a white, giant, gentle dog who did a "walk-on" in the Friday performance and a "sit-off" in the Saturday performance. Saturday night, confused by the excitement of her new career, sat her 165 lbs. in the aisle and refused to budge. She was nevertheless a hit in both performances. A fast paced and amusing job was turned in by all participants and the audience entered into the spirit of the action and enjoyed themselves to the end.

Also in the cast were Marjorie Oxnard as the maid, Richard Sharples, Arthur Bennett, Frederic E. Reynard, Joseph Perry, William Eccles, David Helfand and Oliver Smith.

Committees: Beverly Knapton, production chairman; Anna J. Bradley, program chairman, assisted by Louise Kelsey, Betsy Duff, Constance Seeley, Ruth Peterson, Ida Clark, Barbara Collyer, Ruth Covill, Rita Lamarre, Louise Yard, Helen Hirons, Jane Hopkins,

SPRING SALVAGE DRIVE

The annual Spring Salvage Drive by the Volunteers of America will start here on Monday, March 20th.

Hal Hughes, post executive officer, said "this year more than ever we can put to good use articles of every description to meet the increasing needs of the less fortunate in this area".

As in previous years, the Volunteers of America will pick up salvage from individuals at the homes of donors. Salvage items can be dropped off at headquarters for the drive, located at 947 Acushnet Avenue, or a pick-up can be arranged by calling WY 4-2113.

The Volunteers of America will collect, examine, sort and repair the items collected and distribute them to the needy. The organization will pick up items ranging from discarded clothing and shoes to electrical appliances and furniture.

"Virtually every item can be used to help someone," the local officer said.

In launching the local salvage campaign, Mr. Hughes said: "It is our hope that again this year the public will rally to our side in our efforts to help the less privileged. In its 64 years of service, our national organization has helped many thousands of men and women get a new start in life through the fine cooperation of the American people. Our salvage campaign is one of the mainstays of support for the local program," Mr. Hughes added.

with them the local paper, "The Town Crier", of Lunenburg, Vermont. This particular issue of the paper is devoted to their town meeting and election, and it was of interest to us that the tax rate for this year is set at $5.95.

It seems that people are catching up with cows in Vermont with 414,000 cows in 1960 as compared with 389,881 people. In the year 1950 there were only 377,747 people. The reason for the change is not given but it may be that the tax rate figures leaked out and people are more interested in this sort of thing than the cows are.

ROCHESTER BOWLING LEAGUE, MARCH 14

Rounseville Saw Mill reset the team high three strings with a 1782 in the Rochester Bowling League. Tony Lopes banged out a 383 as Rounseville took 2 points from Hartley's Garage (Eddie Swift 375). The Firemen, with Frank Walsh getting 366, took 2 from Lloyds (Eddie Lawrence 357). Gibbs Farm Dairy (Art Tripp 360) took 2 points from Herbs T. V. (Stub Hartley 344). Hartley Saw Mill split 2 and 1 with D. Mahoney & Sons and hung on to first place in the second half. Henry Hartley's 346 was high for the winners with Gene Benoit hitting 357 for Mahoneys.
